MEMORANDUM FOR THE DIRECTOR OF CENTRAL INTELLIGENCE

THRU: Personnel Director
Assistant to Deputy for Inspection & Security

SUBJECT: Request for Security Waivers for [REDACTED]

25X1A5a1

25X1A5a1

1. A waiver for the requirements specified in CIA Administrative Instruction 10-2 for both [REDACTED] is requested for the following reasons:

25X1A5a1

a. At the meeting of the Assistant Directors on Monday, 29 Jan., it was agreed that I should attempt to seek the services of [REDACTED] to engage in a survey of what was now being done and of what should be done in the US Government in exploiting [REDACTED]

etc. This survey, which is of interest to OO, OSI and others, is a matter of considerable urgency since equipment now becoming available in Korea is not being adequately analysed, and hence the training of analysts to exploit this kind of information should be undertaken at the earliest possible moment.

b. I have ascertained that [REDACTED] will be available for this assignment as soon as we want them.

25X1A5a1

25X1A5a1

25X1B4d c. [REDACTED] was one of those primarily responsible for [REDACTED]

War II. His wife is a trained statistician who works closely with him on everything he undertakes and whose talents complements his in important ways. I am convinced that there is no person or persons in the U. S. better qualified to conduct this survey.

25X1A5a1

2. I have known both the [REDACTED] for three years, during most of which time, [REDACTED] has been a colleague of mine on the faculty of Yale University. He was known to many of my intimate friends a good many years before this. He was, of course, thoroughly investigated during his period of employment in OSS, and has also been investigated by the ECA with whom he is at the moment a consultant. I am thoroughly convinced of his complete loyalty and discretion.

25X1B4d 3. The extreme urgency of having the problem [REDACTED] 25X1B4d
[REDACTED] analysis carefully examined by an expert seems to me to justify the granting of a waiver in this case.
